HOLIDAY WISH PROGRAM

*A program coordinated through
Strengthening Families*

The Holiday Wish program is coordinated by United Way of Delaware County with the intent of providing holiday wishes to Delaware County foster children, isolated youth and young adults, and children and families who are not served through other holiday programs.

A sign-up list will be available at the end of October 2019. This is a perfect team building opportunity for the holidays. Items will be collected at the United Way of Delaware County office no later than December 6, 2019.

UNITED WAY OF DELAWARE COUNTY: GAME CHANGERS

Strengthening Families*

We are seeking community leaders, donors, and advocates to share expertise, networks and resources to help identify and secure resources that will allow for sustainability, capacity building and program expansion for the Strengthening Families Initiative. Game Changers will work closely with United Way of Delaware County leadership and staff to determine where their support can make a difference. Current roles include serving on the advisory board, fundraising campaign, event team, and outreach committee.
